

Around the Square

By Tommy-Ann Miller

Things have been stirring around the Square lately intriguing spectators and bench-parkers. Things like the exciting erecting of the 120-foot KMAX radio tower topped by a beady red light. "It was just like an aerial circus!" said one office window watcher as two men scaled up and down the tower, sans safety belts.

Next, came the lifting down of Hartman's old rooftop sign and the hoisting of the new sign (with tastefully simple lettering on a white background), designed by Rudy Hartman.

Friday afternoon and Saturday the business district was filled with young Halloween window painters who turned out some delightful examples of less polished art spookery, as well as the prize-winning windows (what, no prize for the Republican headquarters?)

And when there's a lull in store remodeling, sign-changing entertainment, Square spectators can always keep track of bumper-dodging pedestrians, or make bets on the number of times cars cruise around Kersting Court before finding a place to park.

DAVIS DOINGS. It's a busy year for Bill and Delcia Davis what with Bill in his first semester of teaching (Drama and English), plus his activities in the Los Angeles State College drama department. Last week, Bill was given an acting award (at Los Angeles State's annual banquet) for his role in "Long Voyage Home." Delcia recently became a registered social worker and has been working on her masters at USC.

A SKIT presented by the Arcadia League of Women Voters marking the 40th Anniversary of Womens Suffrage (yea! Lucretia Mott) presented Monday night at Hinshaw's Auditorium, was written and directed by Nancy (Mrs. Keith) Seegmiller.

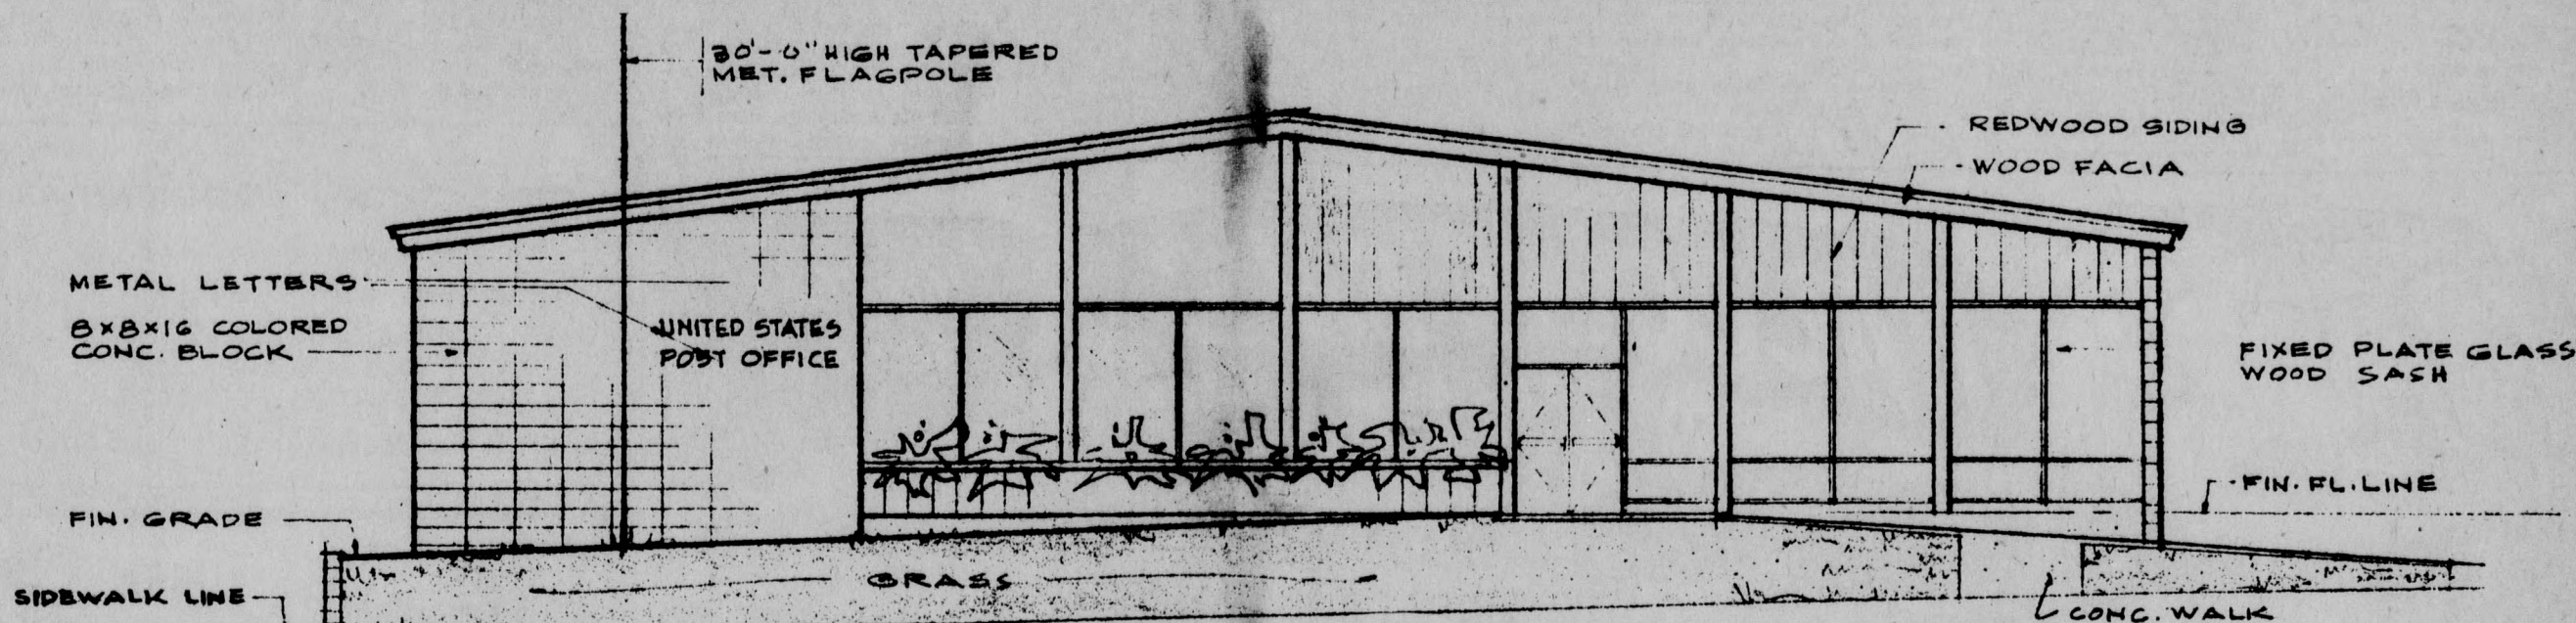

CAN ANYONE be busier than Lenore Barrett? who's completely involved in the coming election. Lenore is finance chairman for the Rudd Brown campaign and Western Division chairman of the National Strategy for Peace Program, an official campaign of the Women's Division of the Democratic National Committee.

This means making speeches many times a week at coffee hours, club meetings, at private gatherings, etc. Last week she toured Southern California with Pat Lawford, Janet Leigh, etc. (to the tune of six engagements a day) as part of the Peace Program—which, incidentally, deals specifically with foreign policy.

AND IN CASE you didn't know it, during the Democratic Convention, Lenore was administrative assistant to Dan Kimball (former Secretary of the Navy, now president of Aerojet), and headed the Los Angeles Citizens Committee for the convention (raising money, etc.).

IT COST more than the initial gamble sum to win a free gold fish at the highly-successful St. Rita's Carnival. Because after the fish spent Saturday night in an empty cookie jar, the following necessities were purchased for his (hers? who can tell?) comfort: 1 glass fishbowl, 1 box of food, 1 bag colored shells, 1 bunch water weed. Total: ten cents to win the fish, plus $1.93 for it's room and board.

SCARIES DUE. Get ready for the hungry gobbie hobbs who still thrill in ringing doorbells for a trick or treat, despite well-planned community activities. And don't fail to see the parade forming in Kersting Court at 6:30—marching to the Sierra Madre Grammar School at 7 p.m. The costumes are always treasures, many of them designed by mothers whose fingers are shredded from last minute sewing.

A LINE DRAWING prepared especially for the SIERRA MADRE NEWS shows how Sierra Madre's new Post Office building will appear when it is completed some time next spring. The sketch is from a government drawing.

Millers Have Close Call . . .

3 Sierra Madreans Escape In Ship Crash

Death escaped by a hair-lash was the fortunate lot of Donald V. Miller, Pasadena banker, and resident of 303 Manzanita, Sierra Madre, his wife and their daughter, Donna Louise, 19, in the ship crash of the Alcoa Corsair on which they were passengers, and the Italian freighter Lorenzo Marcello in the murky, fast-moving waters of the Mississippi River, near New Orleans last week.

Four of the nine dead were from Pasadena and vicinity. The party was on a cruise of the Mississippi and delta country arranged by the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller and Donna, a Pepperdine College student, flew home from New Orleans early Tuesday, via American Airlines which hastily advanced passage which had been arranged for Nov. 7.

"HOME NEVER looked so good," commented Mr. Miller in describing how he, his wife and daughter escaped death by reason of the position of their stateroom.

Donna suffered a strained rib and other bruises when thrown from her bunk to the floor of the Miller stateroom and against the room divider.

The Millers were in Stateroom A-25 just five staterooms from the five on the same starboard side, 1, 3, 5, 11 and 15, in which the crash victims were death-trapped. Only this permitted their escape from death or injury.

"We were most fortunate," said Mr. Miller in describing their harrowing experience. We felt the impact, of course, and the crunch of the other vessel's prow as it crashed through into those staterooms. It was a pretty harrowing scene, with the cries for help and bodies scattered here and there in the wreckage. I imagine most of the victims, like us, had just retired for the night."

MR. MILLER is vice president of the California Bank. He is a former president of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce.

Donna had canceled a semester of study at Pepperdine in order to accompany her parents on the trip.

"I have a hunch she'll now want to return to school immediately," said Mr. Miller.

Water Proposition 1 Okayed

$356,000 Sewer District Created By S. M. Council

Sierra Madre City Council Tuesday night combined water, sewage and fringe benefits for city workers in a long and busy session marked by an overflow attendance of citizens interested principally by hearings on sewer proposals.

The latter included steps toward complete sewerization of the city north of Sierra Madre Blvd. and extending to the hills. Two steps were taken in this respect.

The city fathers voted to form Sewer District No. 71, estimated cost $356,125, and lying generally between Baldwin and Michillinda and Sierra Madre Blvd. and Grand View.

Likewise, Council adopted a resolution providing for calling for bids for this work and after this a public hearing at which prospective assessments set by the city engineer will be discussed.

IN THE SECOND sewer development, 25 property owners petitioned for creation of Sewer District No. 1 for that area north of Grand View between Michillinda and Baldwin. This would provide sewage up to the hills.

Demo Rally Buses Ready

Mrs. Kenneth L. (Mary) Moyer, Kennedy campaign manager in Sierra Madre, announces that buses for the Kennedy rally at the East Los Angeles Stadium will leave Pasadena Democratic Headquarters, 156 E. Colorado Blvd., at 5:45 p.m. Tuesday. Bus fee is $1. For reservations call Sycamore 2-8945. If enough Sierra Madre people wish to attend a special chartered bus will leave Kersting Court. Persons desiring to go this way may call Jim Holt, ELgin 5-6838. YC-B

Opposition to the plan was voiced by some present, but Council instructed the city engineer to aid the people of the area pending a public hearing on the project.

Less than 1 percent of owners of 618 land parcels in Sewer District 71 had expressed opposition to the project, according to Councilman Milton R. Emerson.

Incidentally, the latter asked the SIERRA MADRE NEWS to publicize the fact that "there are unscrupulous contractors eager to make a fast buck who are or will contact property owners in the district offering to make lateral connections at excessive prices. He urged that such property owners refrain from doing this pending formulation of complete plans, including prospective costs."

COUNCIL formally approved Proposition 1 on the Nov. 8 ballot, this after a lengthy argument on the subject involving bringing of water from the Feather River in the north southward to Southern California. It was felt that while the proposal advanced by Gov. Edmund G. Brown has many weaknesses, it is a start in the right direction.

Council approved creation of two lots in the Rancho Santa Anita property at 602 N. Michillinda for Rod Lane. Turn to page 8

NEW S.M. POST OFFICE BIDS NOW BEING ASKED

COMES the weekend, the traditional Halloween spooks, hobgoblins, elves—and juvenile imps—will be making merry with hi-jinks. Here Mrs. Barton Steed of the Eugene Field PTA, "plots" and plans with youngsters already costumed for the gay event. They are Ramly Starrett, Burke Steed and Stephen Baugh.

4 Youngsters Win Firsts in Paint Match

Windows of all sizes and shapes had their faces lifted Friday evening and Saturday morning by way of Halloween scenes. In fact, 52 windows were exposed to the brushes of nearly 150 boys and girls of the community during the annual merchants' Halloween window painting contest.

The contest jointly sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and Recreation Department drew painters from all of the Sierra Madre schools, plus Marshall Junior High and La Salle High School.

Nearly 50 pounds of powdered water colors were consumed in the art works supervised by members of the Senior Mariners who are "skipped" by Mrs. Marjorie Peterson.

Under the contest rules judges selected first, second and third places on grounds of neatness, color arrangement and originality. This year's judges were Howard Whalen, Tommy-Ann Miller and Maggie Ascher.

Boss City for a Day . . .

Young Folk To Elect On Wednesday

Sierra Madre young folk, led by the Youth Coordinating Council, will converge on City Hall Council Chambers next Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock to elect their own appointees for Youth Day to be observed on Tuesday, Nov. 22.

On that date young Sierra Madreans will serve for the day as mayor, fire chief, police chief, city administrator, assistant city administrator, city treasurer, recreational director, Recreation Commission chairman, Planning Commission chairman, city clerk, Public Library chairman, librarian, fire marshal, building inspector, Council secretary, Planning Commission secretary, five members of the Recreation Commission, four members of the Library Board and five members of the Planning Commission.

School Changes Is Lions' Topic

Sierra Madre Lions Club, meeting tonight at VFW Hall, 40 E. Montecito, will hear David A. Sommers, city recreational director, discuss the situation occasioned by the annexation of the Sierra Madre Elementary School District to the Pasadena School District. Changes in the recreational field incidentally to the school change will be touched on.

Chest Fund Now $4,000

The Community Chest drive for $13,000 with which to meet Sierra Madre's needs today reached $4,000, according to Mrs. Lucy Young, campaign director.

Mrs. Young is confident the Chest fund goal will be reached, but she reiterates her statement of last week that every possible contribution is necessary and, as she put it, "extremely welcome—we need it."

Has Anybody Seen 'Cyranó'?

"Cyranó," so called because of his long nose, and who is of the rare Tamaranda species of semi-anteaters from Central America, has gone awandering from his abode with Mrs. Lida Grant, 363 Sycamore, Sierra Madre.

Mrs. Grant and "Cyranó's" bosom friend, "Squeak," a monkey, and "Irving," a talkative parrot with an extensive vocabulary, want the little fellow back—you see, he's good company, and besides, he's valuable.

Just a year old, "Cyranó" disappeared from the Grant menage late Sunday. He's about a foot long, with a long tail and an especially strong beak. Mrs. Grant obtained "Cyranó" from a nursery which imported him from Central America. He is one of two such specimens in California.

Hiestand and Rudd Brown On TV-Cast

The stern, vigorous battle between the incumbent, Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand and his Democratic opponent, Mrs. Rudd Brown, in the 21st Congressional District, including Sierra Madre, takes a new turn next Sunday at 5:30 p.m. in the special Huntley-Brinkley newscast on NBC-TV (Channel 4) when a day's activities of the two candidates will be depicted.

Some of the scenes in Rep. Hiestand's "Day" were taken in Sierra Madre during the Oct. 15 rally in his behalf and Assemblyman Frank Lanterman, Republican candidate for reelection in the 48th Assembly District.

THE LAST of three coffee hours, sponsored by the Sierra Republic Club, was held Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Edward Murphy, 1015 E. Grand View.

Charles Goodspeed, an area director of the Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee for the 19th and 23rd Districts and member of the Republican Speakers' Bureau, was guest speaker.

Goodspeed was in charge of the rally for Henry Cabot Lodge in the San Fernando Valley area, the Eastland and Downtown Nixon Motorcades and the Nixon Rally at Lockheed Air Terminal in Burbank.

His daughter, Susan, presented the bouquet to Mr. Hiestand. Turn to page five

Glass, Colored Block, Redwood To Be Used

Postmaster Charles E. Louk announced today he has been advised by Postmaster Gen. Arthur E. Summerfield's office in Washington, D.C., that the Post Office Department is now asking for bids to build and lease to the department Sierra Madre's new post office building to be constructed on the west side of S. Baldwin, 325 feet south of Sierra Madre Blvd. Total overall cost is put at $125,000.

Closing date for the bids is 5 p.m., Nov. 29. Completion of the building, with opening of bids scheduled for Dec. 23, with awarding of the contract about a week later, is expected in time for dedication ceremonies late next April or early May.

"THE PROPOSED new building," said Postmaster Louk, will replace the existing facilities at 303 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. The Sierra Madre office has outgrown its facilities there. Its contract for that building expires next spring.

Specifications call for a structure of thermal glass, redwood and colored block, containing approximately 6,607 square feet, with a 1,272 square foot outside loading platform and 15,681 square feet of space for parking and truck maneuvering.

The Post Office Department has obtained an option on the site. Option to purchase the property will be transferred to the successful bidder on the leased building.

POSTMASTER LOUK said that prospective bidders on the lease should contact Regional Real Estate Officer Richard J. Winter, Room 527, Federal Building, Los Angeles 53.

The new post office will in many respects resemble Sierra Madre's Public Library Building, one of the most attractive of its sort in this area.

Postmaster Louk quoted Regional Postal Operations Director Verne Scoggins of San Francisco as saying that "significant progress now is evident in the postal modernization program begun by Postmaster Gen. Summerfield."

Under the Post Office Department's commercial leasing program resources and investment funds of private enterprise are utilized to obtain needed postal buildings. More than 4,600 new structures have been erected during the past five years.

Moreover, due to Congressional approval of the Postal Modernization Program, construction during 1960 will be accelerated, with 1,602 new facilities scheduled for completion and several hundred obsolete post offices modernized and expanded.

Hallowe'en Readings for Hop Monday Nov. 2 and 4

Open reading will be held Nov. 2 and Nov. 4 at 8:30 p.m. by the Sierra Madre Repertoire Theater, at 200 N. Hermosa. The play, to be given in late January, is "You Can't Take It With You." The cast of 19 includes seven women and 12 men.

John Spanos will direct, with Gail Clement assisting, and James Wilson producer.

A performance involves more than acting and directing. There is a set to be designed and built; actors must have costumes and makeup; someone must handle the sound effects and lighting. Props and prompters are needed. Whatever your forte, your help is needed. Come and join us.

THE CAST of characters follows: Paul Sycamore, the father; Penelope Sycamore, the mother; Martin Vanderhof, grandpa; Essie Carmichael, 29-year-old daughter; Ed Carmichael, her husband. Turn to page eight

Yule Mail Rules Given

In anticipation of the increased mailing of parcel post packages to other countries during the holiday season, Postmaster Charles E. Louk issued the following information for the convenience of prospective mailers.

The long sea transit frequently involved in the transmission of parcels by surface means and other formalities that parcels may be subjected to in the countries of destination, require that mailings be made as early as possible to assure delivery by Christmas Day. Surface parcels mailed not later than the dates shown below will normally reach their destination before Christmas.

America Nov. 10
Europe Nov. 10
Africa Nov. 1
Near East Nov. 1
Air service is available to practically all countries of the world and Postmaster Louk suggested that senders of airmail packages mail during the early part of December in order to reach the addresses before Christmas.

VILLA VIEWS

By Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

The time of year has come again when my small fry begin to look at me with accusing eyes and say, "Not ghosts again!"

I have imagination and ingenuity in all sorts of things, but when it comes to anything but ghost costumes on Halloween I draw a complete and utter blank.

I overheard the children in conference the other day planning for Halloween. They were trying to think of some way to tactfully tell "Mother" that they would think up costumes for themselves. I think maybe I finally have it made. My three-year-old is too young to fight back so I can have at least ONE ghost in this house and the others can "surprise" me.

MR. AND MRS. A. J. HUBER of Old House Rd. feel—happily so—that their home has been just a little more than warmed. They had a dinner party last weekend and that also turned out to be a surprise for them.

Their guests presented them with a gift certificate to choose some patio furniture for their home. The group included Messrs. and Mesdames Carl Mounter, Ralph Paquette, George Clark, L. Elfert, William Emme, Arturo Gutierrez, John Eppard, Ben Rogers, Ernest Maurin and George Amthor. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klingerman were unable to be with the group. They were at Yosemite attending an A.L.A. convention.

LESLIE GARLINGHOUSE of Sierra Madre Villa is a slumber party last weekend. Guests came for dessert Friday evening and stayed on Saturday until after a hearty breakfast. The girls were Lisa Griswold, Carol Hertig, Kathy Graham, Kristie Keiholtz, Lee Gilliland, Sharon Hyde and her sister, Valerie Knoll.

They sighted a lot of game that could be had for the shooting, but it would have been impossible to bring it out of the wilderness without pack horses. They drove in with a camper and made that the base of their operations.

I don't think they really minded coming home empty-handed inasmuch as they had their choice of to shoot or not. The country is so beautiful, hunting is more than a good excuse to get out in the wide open spaces.

RICHARD L. FOX of Mesa Rd. was on the receiving end of a surprise birthday anniversary party given by his wife. Guests all arrived with gag gifts and cards "suitable" for the occasion. Mrs. Fox served a late buffet.

The party included Messrs.

and Mesdames Don Whistler, Don Edell, Chet Stinson, Dick Fowler, Jack Griffith, Paul Siechert, Ron Olds and Dr. and Mrs. William Currier.

MR. AND MRS. CARL WARRICK of Sierra Madre Villa recently returned from a trip to Salt Lake City where they visited their two children at Brigham Young College. Judy is a freshman this year and Jerry a junior.

Jerry returned this September from his mission service for the Church of the Latter Day Saints. He spent 2½ years in New Zealand doing missionary work and then took a six-month trip around the world.

He will be married on Nov. 22 to Miss Dawn Thomander of La Canada. Their engagement party was held in Salt Lake City. She also is a junior at Brigham Young College.

THERE HAS BEEN a lot of activity at the John Biggar home on Mesa Rd this week. Mrs. Biggar's sister husband, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Goskirk, arrived for a month's vacation from Honolulu.

The Goskirks are widely known around this area and plans are being made fast and furiously to entertain them while they are here. Already several parties have been planned at Lake Arrowhead, so that they may see all of their friends.

MELISSE KNOLL, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mel Knoll of Villa Heights Rd., celebrated her tenth birthday anniversary with a slumber party last weekend. Guests came for dessert Friday evening and stayed on Saturday until after a hearty breakfast. The girls were Lisa Griswold, Carol Hertig, Kathy Graham, Kristie Keiholtz, Lee Gilliland, Sharon Hyde and her sister, Valerie Knoll.

Field Carnival Saturday To Offer Fun for Children

A Halloween costume parade with a free ticket for each child who participates will be one of the highlights of the Eugene Field PTA's annual carnival to be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday on the school grounds.

Following the parade at 10 a.m., the various fun and food booths will open including the cake walk, gun games, a make-up booth featuring false eye-lashes and mustaches, and a photography booth where costume or humorous prop pictures will be taken. Clothes for Barbie dolls, school pennants, treasure bags plus hot dogs, cookies, candy and other carnival treats will be available at other booths.

As an added attraction, a film "Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein" will be shown in Room 18 while two other movies will be shown in the cafeteria every hour.

Mrs. Joseph Cummins, carnival chairman, is being assisted by the Mesdames Albert Cox, James Devonshire, David Elmer, Dean Eubanks, Charles Haver, John Horne, Walter Opp, Warren Schlinger, Barton Steed, Carroll Woodworth, Gerald Wright, the room mother representatives and countless additional Field parents.

1960 Football Circus Nov. 5 In Rose Bowl

Saturday evening, Nov. 5 will find virtually all junior and senior high school students of the Pasadena school district—plus their parents and brothers and sisters—in the Rose Bowl for the annual Football Circus.

Playing in relays, east against westside teams, the first half of the game will find Wilson opposing La Canada, then McKinley vs. Ellet, and Marshall vs. Washington.

During intermission, Muir and Pasadena High Schools will present half-time activities, and then the two high schools will play the second half of the game.

The Pasadena Quarterback Trophy and the game ball winners will be announced. The gold trophy of the Quarterback Club will go to the junior high school displaying the best brand of football. The game ball also goes to the winning junior high team. Pasadena Junior Chamber will award a trophy to the best high school team.

The circus is sponsored jointly by the Pasadena Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Pasadena Council of Parents and Teachers, proceeds to be divided between secondary school PTAS and student bodies for student welfare and programs.

Saturday will be Paper Drive Day at Don Benito. Fathers will be on hand to help unload papers between 9 and 11 a.m. at the Hastings Ranch loading circle. If anyone wishes to have papers and rags picked up they may call ELgin 5-9991. Mrs. John Norris, chairman asked that only clean rags be sent.

Scout Breakfast Whooping Success

Boy Scout Troop 376, Church of Ascension, scored a bullseye with its annual breakfast last Saturday in Sierra Madre Memorial Park.

The troop fed 506 persons a whooping stout breakfast of fruit juice, pancakes, bacon, coffee or milk at 50 cents per person. So large was the patronage that at times supplies ran out and had to be hurriedly replenished.

Walter Goodwin is Scoutmaster of Troop 376.

Make the best possible use of your time, and you will have more of it to spare.

Top Program In Observing Of U. N. Day

Sierra Madre's first real observance of "United Nations Day" brought proud presentation of the national colors along Sierra Madre Blvd., the proclamation by Mayor W. Webster Vannier, and presentation of a highly interesting program at the Woman's Club House Monday night.

The program Monday night opened with a stirring invocation by Rev. George W. Lindsay, Mayor Vannier, presiding, then called for the "Presentation of the Colors." This was done by an armed color guard by the Sierra Madre post, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Boy Scout troop from the Ascension Episcopal Church who led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Then came a chorus of folk songs by the Mariners troop of Girl Scouts directed by Mrs. Charles Peterson.

FOLK DANCES of various nations were presented in costume by the "Mountain Dancers," a foothill group led by Mr. and Mrs. Halmut Vorster of West Orange Grove.

Everett B. Laybourne, Beverly Hills, state president of the United Nations' group, gave a stirring address on the important role in world affairs by the U. N.

Refreshments were served by members of the auxiliaries of the American Legion and VFW under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Heasley, Jr.

KIWANIS HEAR TALK ON SOCIAL SECURITY

Members of the Kiwanis Club, meeting Tuesday noon in the Woman's Clubhouse, heard Don Crumb, field representative of the Social Security Administration, describe the work of that organization. James B. Hall is program chairman.

City Council Meeting

Originally the Planning Commission had rejected creation of three lots here because of a drainage problem and possible flooding from the proposed Murphy subdivision directly above.

Lane voluntarily relinquished the third lot in the triangular tract so as to reduce the water hazard.

The Steinberger tract involving seven lots on Mariposa between Park and Sunnyside was approved. This appears to be an admirably planned subdivision with a cul de sac dedicated to the city.

Architect R. H. Ainsworth was instructed to draw plans for the proposed new Canyon fire station. He will receive 8 per cent of the contract price or an outright $500 in case the project falls through.

THERE WAS further discussion on the proposed Bonita extension. Robert D. Dodge and M. E. Mosely participated in the discussion which hinges around whether to extend the street to connect with Mountain Trail and Baldwin or to construct a cul de sac leaving the street the way it is. Messrs. Dodge and Mosely will endeavor to reach an agreement between themselves and other property owners and report to the Nov. 3 meeting of Council.

Mayor W. Webster Vannier lectured members of the special fringe committee considering fringe benefits for city employees. He noted the competition from other cities for Sierra Madre city employees, notably police. The committee agreed to get going on their report.

Engineer James Montgomery was instructed to prepare plans for the Mira Monte reservoir. For this he will receive $7,000. It is hoped to take bids on the new reservoir soon after January 1.

Let's Elect A Judge For A Change

VOTE NOV. 8

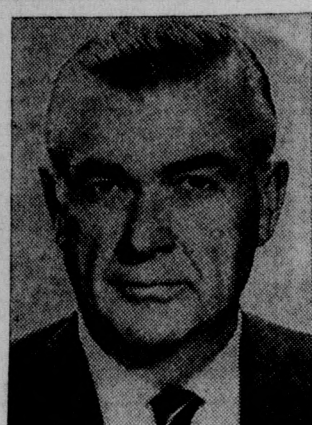

For Pasadena Municipal Judge

Harry J. Crawford

ATTORNEY

ATTENTION VOTERS

Over 90% of California's judges were appointed judges by California governors instead of being elected to office as was originally contemplated by the authors of our state constitution . . . This has occurred because of death and resignation from office and the creation of new offices.

Our judicial offices which were meant to be filled by the elective choice of the people in many instances have become political appointments. Two years ago, the present incumbent of the office of Pasadena Municipal Judge . . . opposed by our candidate Harry J. Crawford . . . was appointed to office by a governor. Today, he is 68 years of age and is now seeking a six year continuation of that appointment. If he is successful in his aim, we again face the considerable risk of having another governor's appointee fill the office because of the incumbent's age.

Let us lessen the risk of having a governor once again fill the office of Pasadena Municipal Judge by electing a vigorous and eminently qualified attorney . . . Harry J. Crawford, age 54 . . . First Vice President of the Pasadena Bar Association with 28 years of successful legal practice.

Pledged To Fight The Narcotics Evil

Harry J. Crawford believes in, and as Pasadena Municipal Judge will work for, a strong Anti Narcoticslaw as follows:

FIRST: The minimum sentences in cases involving furnishing of narcotics to minors should be a definite term of at least ten years for the first offense and a longer term for those with a prior conviction.

SECOND: The right to grant probation for such offenses should be eliminated.

THIRD: The right to grant parole before completion of a minimum prison term should be eliminated.

The laws of evidence should also be improved in the manner of the obtaining and using of evidence in narcotics cases, to provide greater protection for society in general.

HE IS QUALIFIED

- Believes that judges should lead the fight to strengthen anti-narcotics laws and end the evil of dope racketeers
- Although only 54 years of age, has had 28 years of law practice.
- Believes that the bench should furnish civic leadership and give the community time and effort beyond the requirements of judicial duties.
- Recognized by members of the legal profession and civic leaders, Chairman Anti-Narcotics Committee of Pasadena Elks Lodge, First Vice President of the Pasadena Bar Association and Chairman of the City and County Affairs Committee, Pasadena Chamber of Commerce. Born in Pasadena.

May we walk in Thy sight and Thy light, O Father, for the benefit of Thy spirituality, Thy cause and our humanity.

OUR OFFICIALS:

Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand, 21st Congressional District.
Assemblyman Frank Lanterman, 48th Assembly District.
Mayor W. Webster Vannier, Sierra Madre.

We Must Not Become Satellite of Pasadena

The decisiveness of the school annexation election is an encouraging augury for the future of education in Sierra Madre. It was only natural that many citizens should favor annexation with the Pasadena School District, and for logical reasons.

Costs of building our own high school would have been almost prohibitive, with attendant heavy taxation for property owners; our students will have wider educational advantages, and should they decide to attend Pasadena City College the transition from high school to college will be more smooth.

THERE IS something that needs to be said, however, and this is that school annexation to Pasadena is enough. There are some among us who would look with favor on complete annexation of Sierra Madre to Pasadena, and to these we would say an emphatic "No!" Perish the thought.

This "Little Foothill City of Livability" is a sufficient entity unto itself and should remain so. As manifest at the recent Community Dinner, Sierra Madre is thriving and growing despite a mossback status-quo element in our midst. Our growth can be better stimulated and encouraged by the City of Sierra Madre remaining as its own municipal entity, not through becoming an official and minor satellite of Pasadena. As a city we can go it alone.

Hiestand and Lanterman

There are two Republican candidates in which Sierra Madreans, the people of Hastings Ranch and the Foothill Area are particularly interested.

They are Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand of the 21st Congressional District, and Assemblyman Frank Lanterman of the 48th Assembly District.

These men merit a return to Washington and Sacramento because of their probity, the earnestness of purpose with which they have served their constituents, the faithfulness of their true concern for the people of their districts, and their record for fiscal responsibility.

In no sense is this more aptly displayed than by each one's adherence to the cause of "careful spending," and this is doubly important in these days of wholesale extravagance—"pie in the sky" tactics utilized by the Democrats in perpetuating themselves in office.

THERE ARE other reasons why voters of the 21st and 48th Districts should return Rep. Hiestand and Assemblyman Lanterman to office, but in our estimation, the one of guaranteeing the people every careful attention to government spending, overshadows all others.

So, we say, and heartily and sensibly, we believe, vote for Hiestand and Lanterman, for they have been able and conscientious servants of the people.

Nixon Offers 'The Most'

The time for decision by the American voters draws nigh—in just 18 days they will go to the polls to decide whether Richard M. Nixon or John F. Kennedy, Republican or Democrat, will direct the destinies of this nation for the ensuing four years, and in one of the most momentous—and dangerous—periods in our history.

The SIERRA MADRE NEWS stated its belief at the outset of this campaign that it felt the country would be in good hands with either Mr. Nixon or Mr. Kennedy at the helm; nothing has occurred to change this belief.

The NEWS said, however, that because of his experience we believed that Mr. Nixon is better qualified for the Presidency; nothing has occurred to altar this belief either.

THIS IS especially true in the field of foreign relations. There are, however, connotations in the economic field which lend strength to our belief that the country will be in a more advantageous position financially in the next four years if the Republicans are kept in power in the Executive Branch, and if they can gain seats in both Senate and House of Representatives.

Today more people are working than ever before in our history—68,700,000 of them. Who says so? The U.S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of Census.

Are Americans saving money? Personal savings are at an all-time high. These savings totaled $221 billion at the end of 1959, an increase of $12 billion over 1958. And, so far in 1960, they're up 2.6 per cent. Source: U.S. News and World Report Magazine.

How is America's vitality in creating new business? Color television has become a $100 million dollar a year business in just six years. It took the automobile industry 12 years to achieve the same volume, the aircraft industry 25 years and the petroleum industry 40 years. This report comes from John L. Burnis, president of RCA.

THIS IS the economic viewpoint—the one which touches every American pocketbook.

There can be no question of Mr. Nixon's superior experience in the field of foreign relations.

The above facts reveal clearly that Americans, under the Republican regime, can prosper economically and better so than under Democratic auspices.

Summed up, then, two vital factors reveal, clearly and unequivocally, that it is for the best advantage of Americans to cast their ballots for Mr. Nixon, come Tuesday, Nov. 8.

And—be SURE TO VOTE! Don't be an AMERICAN VOTE SLACKER!

"BARNACLE BILL the Sailor" gets away to a smiling start as Manuel de la Torre, Ralph R. Rule and Vern A. Foster start construction on Sierra Madre's float in the Tournament of Roses Parade at Pasadena on New Year's Day. Photo was snapped as initial work was set under way at Sierra Vista Park.

Lee Shippey Says . . .

What Do You Think?

You mustn't blame the editor for anything I say. He strongly disagrees with me on a number of things, and may tell you so next week, but he believes in freedom of speech, too. So here's why I think the Democrats should win this election:

There are a great many more registered Democrats than registered Republicans. Thirty years ago the reverse was true. But the panic of '29, followed by depression, put Democrats in power and they began with guaranteed bank deposits and went on to old-age pensions, Social Security and unemployment insurance, which even the Wall Street Journal recognizes as built-in safeguards against depression. That caused the vast majority of young voters to register as Democrats.

TRUE, millions of those Democrats did not vote Democratic in the last two campaigns, but that was because Eisenhower was a national hero and the public liked his warm personality. Nixon makes no comparable appeal.

The public regards Nixon as an ambitious man with considerable ability, but that's all. The first television debate did him so much harm that his backers blamed the result on makeup men, though it came out he had reported to the studio an hour early in order to study his makeup in the mirror, and the making up was done by his own aides.

Ours still is the greatest nation on earth but our prestige is far below what it was eight years ago. We could ask the U.N. to draw a line in Korea and it complied. When the North Koreans crossed that line 18 other nations joined with us to repel aggression, and for the first time in history nations united to prevent aggression, stopped it, though not one of them had anything to gain by the war. I doubt that now we could get five nations to join us in any war which did not immediately threaten their interests.

I THINK labor, with the exception of Beck and Hoffa, will go heavily Democratic. Too many plants are closed down, too many men out of work, too many business failures.

At Guadalcanal, 17 years ago, Kennedy proved himself a leader, a strategist and a hero. When a Jap ship rammed and cut in two the small craft Kennedy was commanding, it took much courage and exceptional ability for him to save his crew and bring about their rescue.

He was such a hero in Massachusetts after the war he was elected to Congress and after six years there to the Senate—beating Lodge. He has won every battle.

I think it un-American to oppose anyone who has proved himself such a good American because of his religion.

On behalf of the Needlework Guild I should like to say many thanks for the excellent publicity you gave to our Ingathering tea last Thursday, Oct. 20.

It was a most successful and gratifying occasion and we do appreciate your effort in bringing this event to the attention of your readers.

Again to that old Biblical injunction — knowingly I never would transgress if I am sure you know what I mean.

Your letter was refreshing in its utmost candor; we like men who meander where angels fear to tread. Write us again this time next year—we hope to merit the $3 you paid for your subscription to the SIERRA MADRE NEWS, the "Best Little Weekly in the Southland."

Letters to The Editor

The editor is most pleased to print the following letter which reached us the past week:

Dear Sir:
Attached is my check for a year's subscription.

My reason for sending it is that I am curious. So far, you have outdone all previous editors of our local paper in making a fool of yourself, and I simply cannot risk missing your future "achievements."

Yours very truly,
BILL MALONEY.

Comment:
There is an old Biblical saying about labeling anybody "a fool."

However, it sometimes takes foolhardiness and intestinal fortitude for a man to edit a local newspaper and to endeavor through long and vexatious work to make it a forthright vehicle for good and progress in a community. You ought to get off the sidelines and try it sometimes—you'd be surprised.

There is a saying in our journalistic world that every other man, save the editor himself, thinks he is a writer and an editor, and so can edit a newspaper better than the editor.

Of course, these "sidewalk editors" have a place in our editorial category—they help to keep us steadfast on our course, come hell or high-water.

Den Murray's Column . . .

Lure of This 'City of Livability'

By Den Murray

I know a Sierra Madre couple in their 50s who recently sold her 12-room house. A party had long been planned to celebrate this happy event, if and when it should occur. Relatives, friends, friendly neighbors and acquaintances were to be summoned to a buffet of food and drink and there be warmly thanked for their part in making of a 15-year residence in the "Little Foothill City of Livability" an all too short stretch of happiness.

Hollywood was to be announced as the couple's destination. "To be closer to things," as the couple put it. "You know — theaters, and well — oh just everything we're all so far away from over here."

THIS IS to announce that the planned "going-away-party" was never held. For the couple, after their triumphant sale, actually did not go far away from the home they had sold in Sierra Madre. To be exact, just three blocks and ten nostalgic paces.

How do I know? Well, I'm half the couple. And if you wish to learn how excruciating it is to try to wrench up a 15-year root growth entwined in the fertile, kindly environment of this town and transplant yourself elsewhere—read future columns.

In my present mood I think we mis-characterized Sierra Madre. It should have been the "Little Foothill City of Lovability."

ASKED MY friend, "The Hermit of Sierra Madre," what he thought of the recent firing of Casey Stengel. Old fellow left off feeding his pet squirrel long enough to observe: "Downright canny move by the Yankee owners. Y'see, ol' Case was just too gol darn good. Most years he took all the suspense out of the pennant race before they even left the starting gate."

No. There was a greater thinker than Dean Swift. One who didn't require the experiments of police states to learn about human nature. He said it was never too late. He proved it with Mary Magdalene.

and there is at least one calling specially to you and

"Twas something like as if the 'A nita' management down there below us in their horse park was forever start-in' a stakes champion like Native Dancer agin ordinary platers an' expectin' the public to go out an' watch it. "With ol' Case gone now the race will tighten up an' the fans'll begin occupying them empty seats. Besides, I hear they got themselves a serviceable successor to ol' Case at a $47,500 yearly sav-in' in salary. That, son, will still be money even if Kennedy and inflation do get in."

THIS ITEM is for parents with toddlers or heirs on the way. Dean Jonathan Swift, who wrote "Gulliver's Travels" and was accounted by many the greatest thinker of his day, once declared: "Give me a child to educate until he is five, and I don't care who has him after that."

The Nazis and Russian Communists experimented and decided they needed the first 12 years to mold a youngster into unbendable shape.

Parents might do worse than remember this as they face the problem of rearing junior. But does this leave no hope for the parents who have so far goofed? The parents of the rottenly spoiled—the selfish and self-centered—the budding juvenile delinquents we encounter and read about?

No. There was a greater thinker than Dean Swift. One who didn't require the experiments of police states to learn about human nature. He said it was never too late. He proved it with Mary Magdalene.

EXCERPTS FROM an old poem your teenager will be the better for having read:

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan, which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls
Of death,
Thou go'st, like the quail-lavay at night,
Secure to his dungeon, but
Sustain'd and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

What About 'The Silent Voter?'

By Robert G. Spivack
WASHINGTON

THE SILENT VOTER—Vice President Richard M. Nixon is basing his strategy in the closing weeks of the campaign on the assumption that nearly one-third of the voters have not yet made up their mind for whom to cast their ballots.

No one, of course, can be sure. Nixon's estimate probably was fairly accurate about the middle of September. It may be wrong now. Many voters, I suspect, despite their lack of enthusiasm for either man have already decided how they will vote.

All the signs, as I read them, point to a Kennedy victory—or, perhaps, it would be more accurate to say a "Democratic Party" victory.

In other years by mid-October it was usually evident which candidate would win. This year the registration figures point to the Democrats. The one thing, so far as I can see, that might swing the vote to Nixon would be a serious international crisis in the closing days of the campaign. Or an all-out effort by President Eisenhower might persuade some voters to think they are casting their votes for him once again.

IF NIXON is right, though, and some 20 million voters are still on the fence, all forecasts would go right out the window. Since many observers, aside from Nixon, think there are many undecided voters, the question is worth a little examination.

Who is the "silent voter?" And why is he silent?

James Reston in The New York Times and others have described this as the dullest campaign in recent memory. The bobby-soxers squeal for Kennedy as if he were "Kookie" in "77 Sunset Strip" and the hard-bitten Tories occasionally give a grunt of approval for Nixon. But many others feel that neither man has merited the nomination. They refuse to get excited.

The Gallup poll recently came up with some surprising confirmation of what had hitherto been merely a hunch on the part of political writers. Only 71 per cent of the Republicans feel enthused about Nixon; only about 60 per cent of the Democrats "feel strongly" for Kennedy.

THE SLEEPER—There seems to be two reasons for appearance of public indecision on the candidates, if indeed there is such indecision. First would seem to be the feeling that neither man is worth fighting about; hence much of the silence. Second, is the so-called "religious" factor.

My own hunch is that the deep Protestant suspicions about a Catholic in the White House have not been allayed, notwithstanding Kennedy's splendid presence.

Three Mission Services Mark Dedication of New St. Paul's Lutheran Church

Joyous dedicatory activities continued at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, 625 W. Foothill, Monrovia, with three Mission-centered services on Sunday, Oct. 23. Two outstanding pastors brought challenging messages at all services.

At the 8:30 and 11 a.m. worship services, Rev. William H. Gentz, associate editor of Lutheran Herald, delivered the sermon. The Rev. Mr. Gentz was the first full-time pastor of St. Paul's congregation, starting his ministry in July, 1946, with services at the Seventh-Day Adventist Church, Shamrock and Lime, Monrovia.

The congregation was formally organized in October, 1946; Pastor Gentz continued to serve here until 1948. The next four years found him serving as associate pastor of Salem Lutheran Church, Glendale; and then there were four years as a pastor in Oswego, Ore. He was called to his present position in 1956.

BESIDES serving as the associate editor of the official ELC paper, the Rev. Mr. Gentz has been book editor of Augsburg Publishing House, Minneapolis. After January, 1961, when three synods will unite to form The American Lutheran Church, he will be full-time book editor of the publishing house.

A rare treat was in store for those who attended the informal evening program at 7:30 o'clock last Sunday.

Mr. Gunz will then introduce Dr. H. C. Field of Arcadia, chairman of the building committee, who will place the plaque.

In the evening at 7:30 o'clock, the Martin Luther film will be shown.

Craft Shop On Tuesday

Women's Fellowship of the Sierra Madre Congregational church will hold a craft workshop at 9:30 a.m. next Tuesday. Useful hands will assemble items for gift boxes for children of California's migrant farm workers who might otherwise be forgotten at Christmas.

Projects include jewelry kits, stuffed animals, felt purses, games and juzzles. Mrs. Gerald Carlton is in charge and welcomes suggestions for this or future workshops from anyone interested. Coffee will be served during the morning activities.

At noon the Congregational women will gather in the primary room for their monthly fellowship luncheon. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Esther Cogswell of the United Church Women, the organization responsible for World Day of Prayer.

Mrs. Kenneth Dyar will prepare the luncheon and members of the Evening Circle will act as hostesses.

Child care is provided for both the morning workshop and the luncheon and all interested women are invited to attend.

Church Will Have Its 3rd Anniversary

Reformation Sunday at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, Sierra Madre, will mark the third anniversary of the first service which was held in 1957 in the Upper Room of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club.

The young congregation, now worshipping at 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., plans to build soon at its site at the northwest intersection of Foothill Blvd. and Santa Anita Ave. in Arcadia.

"Free Indeed" will be the sermon of Rev. Ray E. Hansen, the pastor who developed the mission and led it into organization.

Noting that the text is John 8:31-46, Pastor Hansen will say:

"How deeply Martin Luther must have felt the words of Christ in this Gospel: 'And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.' It is knowing that Christ is the truth which gives us freedom.

"A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" are some of the great words of Luther's Reformation Hymn. When we have faith in God through Christ, we have reformation in our hearts. We feel a closeness to God that causes us to be free from worry and concern. Our hearts become light because we know God cares and looks after us, no matter what state we find ourselves. God is truly our fortress. He is never a failing bulwark."

The public is welcome to the 10:10 a.m. worship Sunday, and also to the Reformation Rally of Lutheran churches at 7 p.m. Sunday at Messiah Lutheran Church, Pasadena.

Rev. Milus Bonker of First Lutheran Church, San Diego, will speak.

At 7 p.m. Sunday, Faith Lutherans will join the 31 Lutheran Churches of the Missouri Synod in the San Gabriel Valley in a special Reformation Festival service in Ontario. This valley event will be held in the new Redeemer Lutheran Church, 920 West Sixth St. in Ontario, just south of the San Bernardino Freeway.

THE EVENING speaker will be Rev. Arthur Nitz, D.D., of San Francisco, fourth vice president of the Lutheran Church, Rev. W. Fischer of First Lutheran Church, Pasadena, Rev. M. Zigel of Mt. Olive Lutheran in Pasadena, and the Rev. Mr. Hesse will join in the processional which will open the festival service.

Rudd Brown Has Program To Stop Fires

A crash action plan to forestall disastrous forest fires which plague the San Gabriel Mountains and Angeles National Forest is proposed by Rudd Brown, Democratic candidate for Congress in the 21st District, who opposes Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand, Republican candidate for reelection.

Keystone of the plan, put forward by Mrs. Brown at a luncheon meeting of the San Gabriel Hadassah, Tuesday, is establishment of a government-sponsored research and prevention program which she pledged to support if elected to Congress.

The meeting was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Furman, 721 S. Madre, Pasadena.

MRS. BROWN, whose district covers the San Gabriel foothills from Monrovia through the San Fernando Valley and into Palmdale and Lancaster, disclosed she had formulated her action proposal following a detailed discussion of the forest fire problem with William V. Mendenhall, supervisor of the Angeles National Forest from 1929 to 1957.

The Brown-Mendenhall program calls for the immediate setup of a National Fire Research Council, with research centers located in Southern California and other dangerous fire areas. Its findings would provide the basis for Federal corrective legislation.

"Only through sound, coordinated research can the key to prevention of forest fire disasters be found," said Mrs. Brown.

THE 21ST DISTRICT Congressional nominee declared that such a research plan, backed by stronger penalties for firebugs, is the only way to find the answers to the following questions which provide the key to positive fire prevention action:

- 1—How easily do different types of fuels ignite under varying weather conditions?
- 2—What are the fire-setting properties of such common firebrands as smoldering cigarettes and diesel engine sparks?
- 3—Who and what causes forest fires and why?
- 4—How can fires that do start be more effectively contained and finally extinguished?

"The answers to these and other questions," said Mrs. Brown, "are basic to fire prevention, inasmuch as they involve problems in human as well as fire behavior. National action and legislation is needed to provide the direction and funds to expedite such a research program."

Well, Why Not?

Under the heading of "Complaint," Mrs. Bernard Tumilty, 50 W. Carter, writes the following:

"Why don't they install a pay phone at the library since the children cannot use the library's phone?"

Two Little Children Found After Search by Police and Rescue Team, Their Dogs

The Great Blue Beyond the Horizon had an inviting aspect last Thursday for William De Prose, 2½-years-old, and his sister, Holly, only 1½-years-old, so they meandered across the street from their home at 669 Sturtevant Dr., and trudged down the trail which descends into the canyon.

Before both were safe in the arms of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. De Prose, it took the combined efforts of two Sierra Madre policemen, members of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team and their two bloodhounds, plus their parents and a neighbor, Mrs. Alice Bond, to rescue the wandering duo.

THE ALARM was spread at 10:12 a.m. and 15 minutes later Billy was discovered along the trail. But it was almost two hours before Holly, her face red from tears and her dress torn, was found wedged into a bush 30 feet down in the canyon. She had slipped and fallen from the trail. Fortunately, aside from being frightened, she was not injured.

Shortly before police, members of the Search and Rescue Team and the two dogs arrived, her plight had been discovered by Mrs. Bond.

Police Sgt. H. S. Embree, first called, discovered Billy. But it was cause for real alarm when Holly could not be found. Officer David Benscoter joined the search without success, and finally a call was put in for Lt. Fred La Lone of the Search and Rescue Team.

LT. LA LONE and Miner Harkness, with the team's two bloodhounds, responded and after an extended search of the area little Holly was found by Mrs. Bond about one-fourth of a mile from the De Prose home.

"They're all right now and with much talk about their adventure," said Mr. De Prose later. "But we wouldn't want it to happen again, you can rest assured."

Mrs. R. C. Matter Dies Suddenly

Services for Mrs. Ruth Clarice Matter of 501 W. Mariposa, who died suddenly on Oct. 20, were conducted Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Ripple Mortuary Chapel with Rev. George W. Lindsay, Congregational Church, officiating. Entombment was in Pasadena Mausoleum. Mrs. Matter was a native of Oxford, Ohio.

Surviving Mrs. Matter, a Californian for 16 years and a Sierra Madre resident 15 years, are her husband, Stewart Matter, Sierra Madre; two sons, John and Robert Matter, each of Sierra Madre; two brothers, Benton Sizelove of Richmond, Ind., and Forest Sizelove of Oxford, Ohio, and two grandchildren.

Council, Planning Group, Hillside Committee Will Consider Report on Nov. 3

Members of City Council, Planning Commission and Hillside Committee will meet on Thursday, Nov. 3, to consider revision of the Hillside Committee report.

This was announced at last Thursday's Planning Commission meeting.

The Hillside Committee report submitted to the last meeting of City Council provides mainly that "the average lot size created from any parcel or combination of parcels which are to be developed under one subdivision or lot split shall be 15,000 square feet. Lots over 25,000 square feet shall count as 25,000 square feet in calculating the average. Up to 25 per cent of the lots in any development may be less than 15,000 square feet but in no case less than 12,000 square feet."

SOME councilmen and Planning Commission members believe certain revisions are necessary in this important report which will be the basis for an ordinance governing subdivisions and lot splits in the future. These proposed revisions will be considered at the Nov. 3 meeting. The subject of private streets may also be discussed.

The Planning Commission denied the request of Rod Lane to create three parcels from a portion of Rancho Santa Anita at 602 N. Michilinda on the ground that it is poor planning and that it constitutes a triangle subject to flooding from the proposed Murphy subdivision just above. The Lane request however, may be considered further if plans providing for proper drainage are submitted.

Denied also was the Nicholson request for zone changes from R-1 to R-3 on lots 5 and 6, Park Manor Tract, 736 E. Grand View. Part of the property further south already is R-1 and under the plans would remain so. The commission could not see this as good planning.

TENTATIVE map for the Steinberger subdivision on Mariposa between Park and Sunnyside was approved. There will be several lots advantageously planned with a cul de sac dedicated to the city.

Action on the proposed Yunk lot split was delayed pending study by City Attorney Charles R. Martin. This would create two lots in the Carter Vineyard tract, Highland and Mountain Trail.

DOWNHILL PULL

Education, plus ambition and planning, make a smooth road for the wheels of progress.
